Gulf Coast Barrel Racing Association Rule Book

SECTION I—GENERAL

A. NAME

The organization shall be known as Gulf Coast Barrel Racing Association, herein to be referred to as GCBRA.

B. DEFINITION

GCBRA is an organization that offers barrel racers the opportunity to compete and compile points for year-end awards. The GCBRA year begins on November 1st of each year, or directly after the year-end finals.

SECTION II—BY-LAWS

A complete copy of the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of GCBRA are available upon request from the President or Secretary of GCBRA and will also be available online at www.GCBRA.net.

A. OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

1. The officers of the GCBRA will be the Executive Board of the Association. The officers shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.
2. The President shall preside at all meetings of GCBRA and shall perform such other duties as are necessary and incidental to the proper administration of the association.
3. The Vice President shall serve as assistant to the President in the administration of the affairs of the Association and will perform such specific duties as may be assigned to her.
4. The Secretary shall keep all records of the GCBRA, send notices of the meetings, maintain a complete roster of membership and keep records of the points. The secretary will be reimbursed for office supplied as needed.
5. The Treasurer shall have custody of the GCBRA funds, accounting to the association at membership meetings. Treasurer accounts will be reviewed at the end of GCBRA year. This review is to be done by outgoing and newly elected treasurer and two (2) members which the Executive Board will appoint. The report will be made available by the first or no later than the second newsletter for the New Year.
6. The Jackpot Secretary shall be in charge of entries and the money at each jackpot. She will be expected to be at each jackpot at least one hour prior to scheduled starting time and stay for the entire jackpot. This position to be a paid position and shall receive no less than $200 per jackpot. This person shall be an honorary member exempt from work points, dues and donations unless they are competing for points.
7. Refer to the GCBRA By-Laws for a complete description of officers duties.

B. DIRECTORS AND THEIR DUTIES

1. The Board of Directors shall be responsible to answer questions and receive complaints and suggestions from members in their counties. They shall be responsible for the jackpots held in their areas and attend meetings of the board. A director having 2 unexcused absences from called directors' meetings will be automatically dismissed. If a director or an officer does not fulfill stated duties, the Executive Board can dismiss said director or officer.

2. Directors have the authority to make decisions until a Board of Directors meeting can be held. A non-competing director will be considered an honorary member, exempt from membership fees. If the non-competing director decides to compete during the year, they must pay all normal membership fees.

C. ELECTION OF OFFICERS

1. Officers for GCBRA will be elected annually by the general membership. During the year, officers will appoint new directors as growth warrants. During elections at the general membership meeting, nominations will be made from the floor and voting will be by secret ballot. A candidate for any office must be a paid member.
2. Candidates for President and Vice-President must have held the positions of Officer or Director of GCBRA for at least one year.

D. MEETINGS

1. There shall be at least one general membership meeting per year with at least two weeks' notice; the meeting shall be held at the end of the year for the purpose of electing new officers, and will be held at a different location than at a jackpot if possible. At any meeting, a 50% + one (1) majority of the membership in attendance is required on rule changes and a 2/3 majority is required for decision on disbanding; the removal from office any officer not performing duties; and other mainstream decisions.

E. MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

1. Membership in GCBRA is open to any interested barrel racer. To become a member, a GCBRA membership application must be filled out, signed, dated and returned to the Secretary. Dues are payable upon receipt. Dues are $60.00 per year .
2. Family membership will be offered at $60.00 for the first member and $40 for each additional family member. This applies to immediate family members at the same mailing address. Email updates will be sent out to the membership. Updates will also be added to www.GCBRA.net and the GCBRA's Facebook page.
3. Any person joining at the end of the GCBRA year to ride in the finals will have to pay their dues again when the New Year begins in January.
4. All GCBRA members are required to secure a donation of at least $ 60. This donation must be given to the GCBRA Treasurer on or before June 1st, 2019 for member to be eligible for yearend awards.

F. POINTS

1. Points will be kept on member's standing in 1st through 6th places for all classes except the novice horse class. The point system will be a fixed 6 point system for all classes, with 6 points awarded for first place, then 5, 4,3,2,1 for 2nd through 6th places. If there are fewer than 6 members in a class, 1st place will receive 6 points. In the case of a tie, points will be divided equally between the tied members. The Novice Horse Class will award points on a 10 point system with 10 points awarded for first place, then 9,8,7,6,5,4,3,2,1 for 2nd through 10th place nominated novice horse entered in each jackpot. Points will be awarded to members in good standing only.
2. Points will count only from approved jackpots.

3. Points will be kept on the riders in all classes except the Novice Classes, where points will be kept on the horse. Points are transferable from one owner to another on GCBRA Novice Horses, as long as they are GCBRA members.

G. FINES

1. ALL FINES MUST BE PAID BEFORE DUES ARE TAKEN FOR THE NEW YEAR. All fines must be paid within 30 days after notification of fine owed to qualify as a member in good standing. (Refer to Pg. 2 & Pg.4 of the GCBRA By-Laws.) All members owing fines will be maintained on the fines list for a period of 5 years.

H. GOVERNING RULES

1. JACKPOTS

- a. Jackpots must be approved by GCBRA for points to count.
- b. All approved jackpots will be listed on the GCBRA website located at www.GCBRA.net.
- c. An electronic timer will be used to determine each runner's time.
- d. The drag must be determined before the jackpot begins and will have to remain the same throughout the jackpot. (Except for exhibitions). There will be a Big Drag after 50-100-150 etc.
- e. Any entry after the drag number has been drawn will be a random draw made by the jackpot secretary. No choosing of run number will be permitted.
- f. Any delayed start times for jackpots or cancellations due to bad weather, etc., will be posted on www.GCBRA.net, the GCBRA Facebook page, at least 2 1/2 hours prior to the scheduled jackpot start time.
- g. In the event of a double header (Saturday and Sunday race at same location) providing the stakes are set exactly the same each day, a rider can carry over Saturday's run to Sunday. This must be determined and specified at time of entry for the Saturday race with jackpot secretary. If you decide to do this and get a NT for that entry on Saturday, then it also becomes a NT for Sunday. There are no buy backs.
- h. If a protest should arise regarding the amount of monies won by a Novice Horse, a fee of $25 must be paid at the time of the incident. The protestor has one week to provide notarized documentation or an organizational letterhead of a dollar amount that a horse has won with the dates of those wins. Protestor should provide phone numbers of responsible people with the information about the protest within the specified time limit. The person being protested will be notified by letter of this information and will have one week to present any information stating their case to the Executive Board. The Board will at this time make their decision on the protest based on the information presented to them. If the Board should decide in the protestor's favor, the fee will be refunded. Awards will be held until the Board reaches their decision on the protest.
- i. All members are required to accrue at least 20 work points throughout the year as part of their membership obligation to GCBRA. A work point is received by helping set up equipment, working any class or taking down equipment. Working in the Open 5-D and Pole class will receive double work points, at least 2 work points for every 30 runs. Work points will be kept by the GCBRA secretary from worksheets signed by members at each jackpot. Officers and Directors will be excluded from work points.

Non-Directors can work in the office during a jackpot but are only eligible to receive a maximum of ten (10) work points for the year regardless of amount of time they work upstairs.

Work points must be fulfilled by the conclusion of the last jackpot prior to the finals. Any member not completing work points will not be allowed to participate in the finals and must pay a $40 fine due prior to rejoining GCBRA in the future. Members will not have the option of paying their work point fine prior to the completion of the current GCBRA year in order to compete at GCBRA finals or to receive year end awards.

A work point incentive award will be given to the top two (2) members with the most work points accumulated for the GCBRA year. First place will be awarded their next year's membership dues and second will be given awards to be named by the end of the year.

A member will earn 10 work points for getting a $300 donation towards a buckle and/or 20 work points for getting a $650 donation towards a saddle.

- j. All entry fees for jackpots must be paid in cash only; therefore all payoffs must be paid in cash.
- k. THERE WILL BE NO REFUND OF ENTRY FEES ONCE A CLASS STARTS. The class starts when the first runner in that class begins their run, defined as runner crossing the timer. Entries for the Open 5-D Barrels, Youth Barrels, Adult Barrels, Senior Barrels(as long as these classes are ran at the same time) are left open until the last twenty-five (25) runner or at the head officer's or director's discretion.
- l. Any rider failing to complete a pattern or breaking a pattern will receive a "No Time". Pole bending and barrel pattern: Failure to follow the standard barrel or pole pattern shall cause disqualification. Once you have committed to your run, you cannot back up your horse. Breaking the pattern will consist of crossing the wrong side of the barrel or pole. It makes no difference if the barrel or pole is up or down. Knocking down a pole will carry a five (5) second penalty. A contestant may touch a barrel or pole with a hand. Disqualification also consists of falling off of horse (prior to completion of run), turning a barrel or pole twice, backing your horse, ceasing forward motion or crossing the finish line prior to completion of run.
- m. If you run out of order or enter in the incorrect class/incentive, you will receive a NO TIME.
- n. The end poles only will be staked to ensure accurate measurement for each pole run.
- o. All Poles and Barrel exhibitions are $5.00 cash at the gate.
- p. Between 12:00pm and 4:00pm at each jackpot, GCBRA will sell pre-entries for the next scheduled jackpot. The runs will be sectioned off into thirty (30) run sections (i.e., runs 1-30, 31-60, 61-90, etc.) There will be no more than twenty (20) pre-entries sold for every thirty (30) runs and a member can only get one (1) number from each thirty (30) run section. Members must complete all entry forms and pay the entry fees when pre-entering. Pre-entries are only available to GCBRA members. A member may only enter themselves, their immediate family (living within the same household), and one other member. A member is allowed to switch horses on the pre-entry in the event the horse initially entered is unable to run at that jackpot but the rider cannot be changed. A member is allowed to move his/her run number to a later number the day of the jackpot but the move MUST be made at least one hour prior to the start of the class.

ALL PRE-ENTRIES ARE NON-REFUNDABLE EXCEPT IN THE EVENT THE NEXT SCHEDULED JACKPOT IS CANCELLED. In the event the next scheduled jackpot is cancelled, all pre-entries will automatically carry forward unless the pre-entered member contacts the jackpot secretary via email by the Wednesday prior to the next scheduled jackpot to inform her that a refund is requested. The jackpot secretary's contact information will be located at www.GCBRA.net.

- q. A person may only enter themselves, their immediate family members and two other individuals at any given time (unless there is not a line). If that person has more individual entries than outlined above, they will need to go to the end of the line (if applicable) and wait to entry the other individuals.

r. Books open at 8, Barrel exhibitions are 8:30-10:00. Set up poles, followed by pole exhibitions. If times allows after pole classes will do mid- barrel exhibitions until 1:15.7 & U barrels will start at 1:45 will open starting at 2.

2. CONDUCT

- a. GCBRA members are expected to support their organization and to show good conduct at all times. Definition of conduct damaging to GCBRA includes but is not limited to: 1) Making defamatory, libelous, or slanderous comments regarding GCBRA, its officers, directors, or agents 2) contacting sponsors and making defamatory, libelous, or slanderous comments regarding GCBRA, its officers, directors, or agents, or 3) any such behavior determined to be inappropriate by the GCBRA Board of Directors.
- b. Excessive abuse to any animal will be considered poor conduct. ALL DOGS MUST BE KEPT ON A LEASH and if a dog is causing any type of problem, the owner may be asked not to bring the dog to GCBRA functions again. GCBRA will not be responsible for injuries by dogs.
- c. ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ARE NOT ALLOWED AT GCBRA FUNCTIONS.
- d. GCBRA reserves the right to refuse services or remove anyone at any time who exhibits irresponsible behavior, disrupts the use of the facilities by others or is disrespectful of others. Irresponsible behavior includes but is not limited to the following:
- Rudeness including loud and offensive language;
 - Unreasonable demands for service;
 - Being under the influence of a controlled substance or alcohol;
 - Threatening or erratic behavior; or
 - Behavior that detracts from the safety, welfare, and well-being of others.
- e. All GCBRA members or minor child are expected to maintain good conduct. Disciplinary action, including suspension or termination, may be imposed for conduct that is deemed damaging or irresponsible towards GCBRA or its members. Such action that is not to the severity for suspension or termination should receive one or more of the following:
- 1st Offense - Verbal Warning;
2nd Offense - Written Warning to expire after 24 months;

If the GCBRA Executive Board and Board of Directors determine the conduct is more severe or if a member has already received a verbal and written warning in the previous 24 months, the following action may be taken:

Suspension from GCBRA for 24 months;
Barred for life from any GCBRA sponsored function and membership.

- f. Any person who sues GCBRA and openly and willingly disrupts GCBRA's livelihood will be barred for life.

3. CATEGORIES

In all classes where points are kept on the rider, riders may ride more than one horse with the fastest run being counted for points. (Exception of 5-D, 4D and 3-D classes. Rider may receive points in each “D” placing in)

a. Barrels

1. 7 & Under Barrels/lead line- Open to youths ages 7& under. Entry fee will be $12 with $11 going towards year end prizes and $1 to the jackpot. 4. BARREL NOVICE HORSE RULES

- a. To run in the $1,000 Novice Horse Incentive Barrels, you must nominate your horse by paying a 1-time $25 nomination fee. You must enter the nominated novice horse in the Open 5-D, Senior 4-D, Adult 4-D or Youth 4-D to get a time. In addition to the Class entry fee, there will be an additional fee of $7 to be paid on each nominated horse at each jackpot entered that will go toward year end awards. All novice horse nominations are scored against each other for points and then you are scored with the class entered for points.
- b. If you win money at an event where money will be paid later, your novice horse earnings will be on the money won not the money in hand. The person must fill out a declaration stating the number of horses in the class and the amount of the entry fee; then give a reasonable amount expected to win. This amount stands and declaration will be signed by an officer and will stand until the exact amount is posted to the novice horse card.
- c. At the time each horse is entered, the amount of money won by that horse must be stated to the secretary. If money is won at any function other than GCBRA jackpots, it is your obligation to report this money earned to the secretary, for novice horse tracking purposes. If a member is found to have falsified any information given to the secretary, they will be fined $50 and lose all points in any novice classes for the entire GCBRA year, but may run that horse in non-novice classes. If a member should lose their points when falsifying information, points will be awarded to the next eligible horse in line. It is ultimately the owner's responsibility to have the accurate amount of lifetime earnings on a novice horse.
- d. A novice horse cannot be entered twice in the same class. Novice horses must be ridden by GCBRA members for points to count.
- e. If the nominated novice horse exceeds $1,000 in the Novice Incentive Barrel Class during that current year they remain in this class throughout the Association year. The horse with the most points at the end of the Association year, wins the Novice Horse Award. The GCBRA Officers designate the number of places to be awarded.

SECTION III—FINALS AND AWARDS

A. FINALS

1. Finals will be held at the end of the year and will be open to members in good standing only. Points at the finals will count for year-end awards.
2. All fines, donations, work points and other obligations must be met before entering the finals and/or receiving year-end awards.

B. AWARDS

1. There will be awards given in each class, (amount/kind will be designated by Officers following the guidelines mentioned below) purchased by the income from the jackpots, including finals awards. *Donations may be designated to a class by the donor if they wish to do so, but not a designation to any one individual. All awards will be prefaced on the size of the classes. May 31 is the deadline to determine whether participation is enough to award a saddle to any class/category. Ties for yearend awards will be decided by 1) Most number of 1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc place finishes in that division or class 2)
 *Questions regarding the guidelines that must be adhered to, in order to maintain GCBRA's status as a non-profit corporation (as defined in the Articles of Incorporation of Gulf Coast Barrel Racing Association dated April 7, 1989) qualifying GCBRA as tax exempt under Section 501(c)(3), please see the Internal Revenue Code 170 (c) (2) (C).

Internal Revenue Code 170 (c) (2) (C).

(c) which states that a charitable contribution defined for purposes of this section, the term "charitable contribution" means a contribution or gift to or for the use of.....

- (2) A corporation, trust, or community chest, fund or foundation.....
- (C) No part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.....

To be interpreted as not to specify any one individual to benefit from a donation, in the case the Donor wishes to designate their donation it would be designated to a category or class, but otherwise would be used to supplement all classes or categories of GCBRA as needed.

ANY SITUATION WHICH ARISES AND IS NOT COVERED BY THESE RULES, WILL BE COVERED BY THE DECISION OF THE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF THE CURRENT YEAR.

AWARDS GUIDELINES

The number of places to be awarded in each division will be determined as of the last jackpot in May of the current GCBRA year. The guidelines to be used are as follows:
